I. NATURE OF ACTION:

1.1 This is a lawsuit on behalf of the plaintiff, "Joel Lavel Robinson, J.R.'s Legal Services, whose "Civil Rights" are currently being violated with each day.

2.1 Background of Action:

In November of 1995, the plaintiff, in this 1983 civil lawsuit, was in Airway Heights Correctional Center doing time for drug charges. That same year, under a pilot

1 program under then Governor Mike Lowry, the plaintiff, Joel L. Robinson, enrolled in a
2 paralegal class and in 1997 he received his A.A. Degree in Criminal Law.

3 In 2005, the plaintiff, along with 15 other prisons, all formed a law group of jail
4 house lawyers called "The Crime Dog Law Group, which included some of the top "jail
5 house lawyers" from five (5) different Washington State prisons. In 2007, the group
6 voted 14 to 1 to name Joel Robinson as the top "jail house lawyer" and gave him the 7 name as The Crime Dog. Also note: Mr. Robinson wrote the law book called "The 8 Crime Dog Cite Book" while he was still in prison.

9 Released from prison in 2008, the plaintiff, Joel L. Robinson, on orders and 10 directions from God, turned his life around. No more selling drugs, no more fast
11 women, and no more of the street/night life. He will work for the Lord and the Lord
12 only. "J.R.'s Legal Services."

13 Mr. Robinson offers his services to all bar attorneys and pro-se defendants who 14 are fighting criminal prosecution from coast to coast state cases, federal case appeals,
15 lawsuits, etc.

16 Currently, on a confidential basis, Mr. Robinson paralegals for some 25 criminal
17 attorneys. His paralegal law services is now known in all fifty states. Mr. Robinson's 18 law book is the #1 choice law book by all criminal defendants.

19 In February of 2011, even U.S. President, the Honorable Barrack Obama,
20 endorsed Mr. Robinson's law book. See: herein Appendix A-1, "Crime Dog Law 21 Book." See: Mr. Robinson's website at www.jrslegalservices.com. Appendix A-2 and 22 A-3.

24 II. STATEMENT OF CLAIM:

25 3.1 On February 2nd, 2016, the plaintiff, Joel Robinson, received a phone call
26 from Mario H. Escobedo-Pajarito from the Federal Hold Center in SeaTac, Washington.
27 Mr. Escobedo-Pajarito stated that he was not happy with his attorney, that he had read
28 Mr. Robinson's law book, "The Crime Dog Cite Book," and that, yes, he was going pro-

1 se on his case. Mr. Robinson told Mr. Mario Escobedo-Pajarito that yes, 100%, he
2 would be happy to help him as each month Mr. Robinson helps approximatley twenty to 3 thirty pro-se inmates. See: Appendix A-1.

4 On February 19th, 2016, Mr. Escobedo-Pajarito's standby counsel called him to 5 say that if Mr. Escobedo-Pajarito was to go pro-se that the Hon. Judge Ronald B.
6 Leighton wanted to know "who" his paralegal" his legal investigators would be. See:
7 Herein Appendix B-1.

8 On February 25th, 2016, the defendant, Mario Escobedo-Pajarito, did go pro-se,
9 but U.S. District Court Judge Ronald B. Leighton, made an outradeous ruling that if the 10 defendant was to choose to go pro-se that the "paralegal," Mr. J.R. Robinson, would be 11 barred from the case as Mr. Escobedo-Pajarito's paralegal.

12 But on March 10, 2016, Mr. J.R. Robinson was shocked to learn that a big sign
13 was posted on the wall of the U.S. District Court clerk's office which stated that Mr. J.R.
14 Robinson is not to be able to file any motion for or from the pro-se defendant, Mario
15 Escobedo-Pajarito. This is shocking because if you look at each motion Mr. J.R.
16 Robinson's name does not appear anywhere on the documents but the court clerk
17 refused to accept the documents. See: Appendix C-1 and Appendix D-1. The court
18 clerk said that it was ordered by Judge Ronald B. Leighton, the defendant's judge. This 19 is a high level of gross miscarriage of justice in the wheels of law.

20 The defendant was on March 10th, 2016 "pro-se." Yes, for free, Mr. J.R.
21 Robinson was asked by the pro-se defendant, as on any given month is the paralegal for 22 some 20 bar attorneys and some 30 pro-se defendants each month. By affidavit of 23 mailing or personal services, Mr. Robinson files hundreds of motions in state and 24 federal court houses for bar attorneys and pro-se defendants. Once a defendant goes 25 pro-se, the court cannot bar a pro-se defendant from having (1) his own personal
26 paralegals, (2) his own personal legal investigators, (3) his own personal expert services
27 or whatever is necessary to an adequate defense.
28

1 On March 20th, 2016, the defendant, Mario Escobedo-Pajarito, pro-se, moved
2 the U.S. District Court for a full dismissal of his case under Fifth and Sixth Amendment
3 violations. See: Herein Appendix E-1. The two motions were not typed or prepared by 4 Paralegal J.R. Robinson.

5 Note: Just for the record, Mr. J.R. Robinson has offered his time to the 6 defendant for free under the U.S. Constitution's 1st Amendment of the right of the 7 freedom of exercise.

8 This is wrong. No court can make such rulings. This violates Mr. Robinson's
9 civil rights. It violates Mr. Robinson's First Amendment rights prohibiting him the 10 freedom of exercise as well as the 14th Amendment.

11 Also note: There are three other people helping the defendant, Mr. Mario
12 Escobedo-Pajarito. But why has the court seen fit to bar Mr. Robinson only? This is a
13 major violation of Mr. Robinson's 14th Amendment of the freedom to be treated
14 equally. Mr. Robinson has also asked the A.C.L.U., the N.A.A.C.P. and M.S.N.B.C. to 15 view this case and this outrageous ruling as a violation of the U.S. Constitution. He has 16 also asked that a full investigation be conducted on "Civil Rights" violations by this 17 court to the U.S. Justice Department in Washington, D.C.

18 Mr. Robinson has suffered dearly. His good name has been dragged in the mud
19 by posting his photo on the clerk's wall. This has brought Mr. Robinson much pain and 20 suffering as if he were a criminal on the F.B.I.'s "Ten Most Wanted" list.

21 This is wrong and these are Civil Rights violations. All parties involved should 22 be terminated from their jobs as public servants. Furthermore, the poster of Mr.
23 Robinson should be immediately removed from all U.S. clerk's offices.

25 III. RELIEF:

26 (1) The plaintiff, Joel Lavel Robinson, would ask that this court order the 27 U.S. District court clerk, "William McCool," to have all posters of Mr. Robinson's photo
28 removed from all walls of his clerk's offices.

(4) The plaintiff, Mr. Joel Lavel Robinson, would ask that this court order an additional Ten Thousand Dollars($10,000) be paid by Hon. Judge Ronald B. Leighton for making such a ruling for a total of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) for civil rights violations.
